

ASRAT WOLDESELLASE

Asrat worked for 15 years at the U.S. Fund for UNICEF. During this time, she supported the Washington Council Advisory Board with its major fundraising activities for UNICEF. She supervised interns, World Bank's Spouses Association, and many area volunteers for UNICEF. She also coordinated events between U.S Congress and the U.S. Fund for UNICEF. In this capacity, she was arranging special events and briefings with the Senate and House offices. Also, prior joining the US Fund for UNICEF, she worked in the fields of educational administration.

She believes that the beauty of living exists in volunteering.