

The Society of Ethiopians Established in the Diaspora, SEED together with all Ethiopians in the Diaspora is saddened by the passing away of Professor Teshome G. Wagaw. SEED joins the many friends and admirers of Prof. Wagaw in extending our deepest condolences to members of his family.

Professor Wagaw was a global scholar who traveled around the globe in connection with his scholarship and teaching. Besides his native Ethiopia, Dr. Wagaw has lived and worked in Australia; the Middle East; South Africa and the United States. He has traveled and lectured in Japan, South Korea, the Middle East and several countries in central, Eastern and northern Europe.

In 2015, SEED honored Prof. Wagaw as a founding member of the Ethiopian Mahber of Michigan (EMM), cofounder of Ethiopian-American Education Foundation (EAF) which help humanitarian and educational causes. His contribution to the development of higher education in Ethiopia (both as respected professor and author), and his academic accomplishments, patriotism, unselfish devotion to humanitarian causes, and love of country was also acknowledged at by SEED.

Prof. Wagaw will surely be missed by the Ethiopian community and the SEED family.
