

Tamir M Mengesha

Tamir is a graduate of University of Virginia, Charlottesville, with a B.A. Philosophy with a Minor in Drama. Before her current role as the Regional Coordinator at PNC Bank; Greater Washington Market, she had served as a Director of Entertainment & Model for Pride Magazine & Fashion for a Cause in Charlottesville, as Performer & Dramaturge at the University of Virginia's Poetic Liberators & Persona Players, Pre-School Teacher at Phoenix Children's Academy's Winwood Children's Center Reston, Virginia and Office Manager & Seminar Events Coordinator at Makonnen Financial Group, LLC; LPL Financial Alexandria, Virginia.

Tamir joined the PNC family three years ago and has held a BSSA position in Reston location. Her performance in sales and service along with her leadership role as a Human Sigma Champion made her the top candidate for the Regional Coordinator position. In 2016, she got promoted to support all three In-Store Regions with 52 branches. Tami has consistently demonstrated her commitment to her company's vision and brand.

Her exposure to three different regions helped her to grow in her role and develop her leadership skills. Tami speaks four languages, including conversational Spanish and beginner American Sign Language. She is also on her way to be a CFP, completed her Financial Planning Certification program in UVA last year.